

US troops may soon qualify for generous travel discounts through Japan's 'Go To' campaign

Tourists visit Sensoji, a popular Buddhist temple in the Asakusa district of central Tokyo, Sept. 1, 2020.

AKIFUMI ISHIKAWA/STARS AND STRIPES

BUY PHOTO

Email

Print

Reddit

Tweet

Share

Pinterest

More

By SETH ROBSON AND HANA KUSUMOTO | Stars and Stripes | Published: September 24, 2020

Listen to this article now

02:50

Powered by Trinity Audio

U.S. military personnel and their families in Japan may be eligible for half-price deals on bullet train tickets, hotels, meals and other tourist activities starting next month, according to the Japan Tourism Agency.

Japan's "Go To Travel" campaign launched in July with a budget of nearly $13